LIBERTY BOYS LEAVE

MANY GO FROM GLENDALE TO GIVE MEN A FITTING
FAREWELL

The scene at San Fernando Friday morning, when the men of the Seventh District who were selected for the first call, left for American Lake, was one which inspired the highest patriotism in the hearts of those who came to honor and say farewell to these, the flower of our communities.

The boys gathered in front of the Porter Hotel, arriving in limousine, big car and little, horseback and on foot, each attended by a crowd of relatives, anxious to have the last look or the last handshake.

Pictures were taken of the company and comfort bags distributed by the Red Cross committees. San Fernando Red Cross workers had each man's comfort bag inscribed with his name. The Glendale boys had been largely provided with bags, but the Red Cross comfort bag committee, under Mrs. A. M. Beamon, had motored over with a supply, and if any were not supplied they were brought up by more fortunate comrades and supplied with these conveniences.

The scene was most inspiring. All hearts were thrilled, but there were heart-breaks and tears at the parting. Each man as he moved was followed by those nearest and dearest to him.

At 9:30 the school at San Fernando was dismissed and the high school boys came down with the immense flag outspread almost the width of the street, carried with many loving hands.

When the whistle was heard, led by the flag, the soldier boys marched the block and a half to the station and the big train loaded with the soldier boys of Los Angeles and surrounding towns slid silently in without sound of whistle or bell, and after our boys had taken their places in the last coach, reserved for them, slid out silently with greetings and wavings from the front coaches, but all was silent in the rear coach. The friends turned away feeling as though they were giving their best to their country.

A large number of Glendale people motored up to San Fernando and took part in this farewell reception. The following is the list of those who reported Friday morning:

TWENTY YEARS WED

FRIENDS ASSIST REV. AND MRS.
MOTTERN TO CELEBRATE
WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A very pleasant and happy event took place last evening at the Lutheran parsonage, corner of Fifth and Maryland. It was the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern of our city.

Owing to the Sunday campaign, no attempt was made at an elaborate affair, yet a good number of the members of the Lutheran church and friends of town, and the W. C. T. U. were present to celebrate the event with the host and hostess. All were in their happiest humor. The entire evening from early until late was most pleasantly spent and the hours sped by all too quickly.

Rev. and Mrs. Mottern have been in Glendale now for two and one-half years and have won many friends, within and without the church, by their interest in the general uplift of the community in things civic, moral, religious, educational and musical.

Twenty years ago Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern stood at the sacred altar and pledged their troth to each other in the great St. James Lutheran church in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, amidst a large circle of friends. Two of the wedding party at that time, the Rev. C. H. Brosius and Rev. S. C. Burger, since are filling responsible mission fields, the former superintendent of the Lutheran work in Liberia, and the latter in India.

One of the pleasant features of the evening was a picture of the entire wedding party taken twenty years before, soon after the ceremony at the home of the bride, and another was the wedding booklet containing the certificate and the names of many of the guests.

The parsonage last night was most beautifully and tastefully decorated with China asters, pink, white, lavender and purple, which was the wedding flower twenty years before.

The host and hostess were thoughtfully remembered by their friends in handsome pieces of linen and a purse, which was presented in a neat speech by John Esterly.

During the course of the evening

HARRIS-BLANKENSHIP

Married, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Glendale, 133 South Jackson street, Wednesday, September 19, 1917, at 7 p. m., Mr. John Milton Harris and Miss Bernice Blankenship, both of Redlands.

The young couple were attended by Miss Viola Harshberger of Long Beach and Mr. Eider Butler of Los Angeles. Mr. Butler was a classmate of the groom during high school days in Redlands.

The bride was a former parishioner of Rev. Snudden's at Glendora having united with the church there during his pastorate.

INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

The Glendale Sanitarium is one of the prosperous local institutions of Glendale. It gives employment to about 150 people, and has at present an enrolled list of 65 nurses. The number of patients taking advantage of the very systematic treatments given at this institution has greatly increased over that of a year ago. C. E. Kimlin, the manager, deserves great credit for the diligent efforts he is using to make the Glendale Sanitarium a great national institution.

CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

The First Methodist Church will hold its annual membership rally on Monday evening, September 24th, in the social hall of the church. As the conference year closes on September 30th, all members are urged to be present. There will be a basket supper at 6:45 and all members are asked to take sandwiches enough for their families and one other dish. Salads, pies, cakes, etc. The Ladies' Aid will serve coffee and tea. There will be a short program.

With the close of the vacation season, and also the opening of the new church year, this gathering will doubtless mean much for the church.

ELKS WILL GAMBOL

The Elks' Gambol, which has been in full sway at Santa Monica for three days, will be greatly augmented by a jolly party of the Glendale Elks, who will motor down Saturday evening to join the fun and frolic.

About fifty are planning to go from Glendale. At least twelve autos will be required to transport the Elks and their ladies to the beach town.

CONGRESS MAY NOT PROBE GERMAN PLOT

NEITHER BRANCH WISHES TO HAMPER DEPARTMENTS
OF STATE AND JUSTICE IN HUNTING PLOTTERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 22.—Secretary Lansing informed Chairman Flood of the House Foreign Affairs committee that he thought an investigation into former German Ambassador Bernstorff's attempt to influence Congress with a $50,000 fund was unnecessary.

Congressional investigation of Bernstorff's organized anti-war propaganda depends upon President Wilson. Leaders of both houses are eager to probe the ramifications of Germany's intrigue. Neither branch desires to take any action that will hamper the state or justice department in running the plotters to earth. This view, coupled with the fact that the president wants Congress to quit and go home, will probably result in no White House sympathy for the investigation.

GERMAN COUNTER ATTACKS REPULSED

BRITISH HOLD EVERY INCH OF NEWLY ADVANCED LINE
IN YPRES-MENIN SECTOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, September 22.—Powerful German counter attacks at daybreak penetrated Haig's new-won position in the Ypres-Menin sector east of St. Julien, an official statement said. Germany's gains were short-lived. The British made further attacks which were successful in ousting the enemy from recently won positions. To-day Gen. Haig reports that every inch of the newly advanced line is held intact. The fighting throughout was of the fiercest character.

PETROGRAD, September 22.—Teutonic troops have again started an offensive in the Riga region, before which the Russian forces have been forced back, an official statement declared to-day. "Southwest of the Admina-Jacobstadt region the enemy occupied part of our lines after piercing our positions," the war office reported.

FAIR PLAY COMPANY GOT GERMAN MONEY

SENATOR KING HAS PHOTOGRAPHS OF CHECKS ISSUED
BY BERNSTORFF TO NEW YORK FIRM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 22.—Definite evidence that Count von Bernstorff paid large sums of money to certain publications, is in the hands of Senator King of Utah. King told the Senate that he has photographic copies of checks paid by Bernstorff to the Fair Play Publishing company of New York. Evidence that thousands of dollars were paid by him is absolutely authoritative and shows the extent of von Bernstorff's web of influence stretched throughout this country.

U. S. IS IN THE WAR TO STAY

STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES THAT GERMANY'S REPLY
TO POPE WILL HAVE NO EFFECT ON AMERICA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 22.—Germany's answer to the Pope's peace plea will not affect the war situation as far as this government is concerned. The state department declared officially that the United States will prosecute the war on the basis that the struggle must continue until Hohenzollernism is eliminated.

OPENING MEETING

PARENT-TEACHERS OF PACIFIC
AVENUE SCHOOL ORGANIZE
FOR YEAR'S WORK

The first Pacific avenue P. T. A. meeting for the new school year was held Thursday afternoon.

A large attendance marked this opening meeting. The new president, Mrs. Minnette Sherman, presided, with Mrs. Edna Sawyer, the secretary, and Mrs. Frank Ayars, treasurer, assisting.

A splendid report of the work accomplished by the playground committee was given by Mr. M. B. Hartmann, the secretary of that committee.

Mrs. George Herald, the ways and means chairman, gave an outline of plans for the year's work, which if carried out successfully, will mean only the two money-making affairs. Those plans include a picture show benefit and a bazaar at Christmas time. The picture show benefit is to be given on the evening of October 12, and will be that delightful little play, "Captain Kiddo." All the mothers and friends of the school are taking tickets to sell. This year a different arrangement is to be carried out and only a certain percentage of the tickets sold outside of the box office benefits the school. Therefore, buy your tickets of the children and mothers, as none of the box office receipts benefit us. This means everybody hustle for the next two weeks. The bazaar at Christmas time is always a success financially and socially. It would be well though to bear it in mind when plying the needle these delightful summer afternoons.

Mrs. A. S. Chase had prepared the program for the afternoon. Miss Ethel Hume Flood of the High School gave a wonderfully inspiring talk on "Ideals for Our Boys and Girls" along vocational lines. She said: "What the boy or girl really does when he comes to school is to find himself, to find out what he is intended for and capable of doing. Do not stifle originality nor let the schools do it. Have a purpose for your child. Help him develop along the line he is fitted for." This was a splendid address, greatly appreciated by those mothers who were privileged to hear it. How much the stay-at-home mother misses in not hearing these messages of inspiration which she needs more than any one else.

This was followed by two beautiful songs, the first "Mother o' Mine," those words of Kipling's made famous by the great McCormack, and Cadman's "At Dawning," sung by our own Mrs. G. D. Roach.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, the new Federation president, presided.

APPRECIATE TREAT

J. F. Preston, who conveyed the contributions of candy and magazines to the boys of Co. 9 on Dead Man's Island on Wednesday, says he enjoyed his visit with the boys. Mr. Preston was accompanied by Pierson Hanning and they were very enthusiastically greeted. The boys expressed their sincere appreciation of the thoughtfulness that prompted the treat.

Mr. Preston and Mr. Hanning had dinner with the boys and can testify that they have plenty to eat and that they are contented and happy. Mr. Preston inspected the camp and says he saw no fruit trees and is sure that some apples and peaches would touch the right spot if they came within reach of Dead Man's Island. The boys of the 9th are looking forward to "pie day."

COMMUNITY CONCERT

At the request of Mrs. Dora Gibson, Professor of Music, who has charge of the community concert tonight, it will be given at the High School Auditorium, as permitted by the School Trustees. She has kindly consented to be there at 7 o'clock and hold a short session of an old-time town singing school before the concert begins at 7:30. There will be books for the singers in the audience also, and a jolly good time is expected. Community singing will be a growing achievement in Glendale. "Come, everybody."

EYES AND THEY SEE NOT

Dr. Stuart Steelman, who is quite a unique publicity man, has recently had a large eye painted on each head lamp of his Studebaker touring car, and now all who meet the Doctor and his car will know at first sight that they are in close proximity with a professional man. The appearance at night, when the lamps are illuminated, is very attractive.

STATE MOTOR LAW

ADVENT OF AUTOMOBILE CAUSE OF LEGISLATION GOVERN-
ING THEM

Motor cars have come so generally into use in the past few years that our lawmakers have been kept busy framing new laws governing the use of automobiles on the public highways. Twenty years ago an automobile was very rarely seen anywhere, and even 15 years ago they had not come into general use.

It therefore may be readily understood that the advent of the motor car brought with it the necessity of laws governing its use. Before the motor cars came into general use, vehicles drawn by horses were allowed to travel upon the highways and on streets of great traffic without headlights; but the rapid-running motor car suggested the need of what is now known as a headlight. All kinds of methods to produce this light were resorted to, and the more glaring the light the more completely did the owner of a car think he was fulfilling the requirements of the law.

Experience taught automobile users that the use of brilliant and dazzling headlights blinded the eyes of drivers of approaching motor cars, and when the driver could not see objects in the road in front of him there was great chance for serious accidents.

A few months ago a law was passed by the state that all headlights must be adjusted to comply with certain reasonable requirements.

Arrangements were made with competent motor car men at suitable centers in various parts of the state to make headlight adjustments. H. M. Butts, of the Monarch Company, 421 South Brand boulevard, Glendale, was authorized to make adjustments of headlights and give out official cards stating that adjustments had been made by him according to law. In the early part of August Mr. Butts gave out hundreds upon hundreds of these cards, as also did men who had been appointed to perform a like duty at other centers in the state. Now, the law requiring headlights of motor cars to be properly adjusted is being rigidly enforced and the Los Angeles police force has found it necessary to call for a night court to handle the many cases coming before them.

The Glendale community will be required to enforce motor headlight laws. Officers have already been instructed to look out for violators of the law.

That every owner and driver of a motor car may have a fair show, arrangements have been made that H. M. Butts of the Monarch Company, Glendale, does adjusting of headlights free of charge. An O. K. card from Mr. Butts is official, and will certify that the operator of the car has complied with the law.

Mr. Butts devotes Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights to making these adjustments and makes no charge. In addition to making headlight adjustments, Mr. Butts has applications for operators' certificates which, upon being properly filled out, will give authority under the state for the holder of such certificate to operate a motor car on the public highway. According to a recent amendment to the state motor vehicle act, every operator of a motor car is required to have a license. This license is granted by the proper officials free of charge.

It is the intention of the state to make it easy for users of cars to comply with the law, and for this reason responsible local men are delegated the authority to assist owners of cars to co-operate with the law enforcing powers of the State.

McGILLIS MADE CORPORAL

Henry Hill McGillis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McGillis, who was one of this district who left with the others of the Seventh Districts for American Lake Friday, has been made a non-commissioned officer, being made a corporal and starting out with a squad of nine men. Mr. McGillis had the advantage of ten months in the navy and will no doubt be of assistance in getting the troops into shape.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGERS NEXT WEEK

The announcement is made that the choir of the Congregational church will take charge of the community concert next Saturday evening, September 29. The pastor, Dr. E. H. Willisford, will give a brief talk on community singing. Something especially good is looked for from these well-known singers.

eration president, then gave a most pleasing talk on "Ideals for the Parent-Teacher Association." She said most convincingly that the ideals of a P.-T. A. must be high and the programs should bear always on subjects pertaining to child life, the home and the school. It should be the duty of the parents in co-operation with the teachers to remedy existing evils or insanitary conditions found in the schools. Much more that was helpful was given in Mrs. Brown's practical advice for P.-T. A.

The president, Mrs. Sherman, then explained the work of the various committees, urging every mother to do her bit in the work of this organization.

The officers and the heads of the different committees are to be considered as honorary members of the courtesy committee, which means that it is their special privilege and honor to seek out and greet all strangers or, in other words, to make themselves generally agreeable to everyone.

The association is delighted with the addition of a splendid kindergarten, having an enrollment of 29 to begin with. The new kindergarten teacher is Miss Corey. Miss Circle, also from the Sixth street school, is with us, taking the place of Miss Mosher, whom we are sorry to lose, but who will prove an addition to the Colorado street school.

Mrs. Stone, our efficient principal, though rushed with this first week's work, was ready with cordial greetings for the new kindergarten mothers and others.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of home-made cakes and punch, were served by Mrs. Hanning and her hospitality committee.

a most enjoyable program of music and readings was given, much to the delight and pleasure of all present. The Misses Emma and Helen Esterly contributed a sweet piano selection, likewise Elizabeth Mottern, and vocal selections were given by Mrs. T. F. Higgins, Jr., Helen Esterly and Elizabeth Mottern. And last but not least were the readings given by Miss Nellie Rowe of Orange street. For a school girls, her readings were very fine, especially in child dialect and impersonations.

Rev. A. B. Smart, in his scholarly and genial way, presented to the Rev. Mottern during the course of the evening, one of his especially prized and helpful booklets.

Dainty refreshments of cake and cream were served by the young ladies. Soon after the guests bade the host and hostess many sweet returns, a long and still happier and more useful life, with the blessing of our Divine Creator.

WATER NECESSARY TO LIFE

All life is lived in water. Where no water is, no life can be. The necessary machinery may have been already made, as in a completely dried seed, but that seed cannot actually live until water reaches it again. To live is to be wet; or, in the phrase of a French student, "Life is an aquatic phenomenon."

When the supply of water is withheld from living things they may survive, but their life is slowed down, as it were. In the completely dried seed life is arrested altogether, yet the creature is not dead. The French call that a case of vie suspendue—or, in our language, suspended animation. After astonishingly long periods, such seeds will germinate if they are watered.

The astronomer tells us that our planet is only one of many belonging to innumerable suns, and he wondered whether this little "lukewarm bullet" of ours, as Robert Louis Stevenson called it, is really unique in bearing a burden of life. There is one path that leads to the answer of his query. If he finds no evidence of water on other worlds he cannot expect to find life there.—Dr. C. W. Saleeby, in The Youth's Companion.

A FAILURE CONFESSED

"You said I would never want for anything if I married you," she pouted.

"Quite true, my dear. My idea was to cure you of wanting things, but I haven't succeeded."

BEST HE COULD DO

"My hair is coming out," said a man to his doctor. "Please give me something to keep it in."

"Well," said the doctor, "here's an old pillbox. Will that do?"

At the last lesson the pupils, all grown-up men and women, were much interested in the study of the French national song, La Marseillaise. The first half of the first verse was copied and translated, and is to be committed to memory for next week, when the latter portion of the verse will be learned.

In a week or so it is expected that
Dr. Henry Harrower will sing this song for the French class.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, president of the California Mothers' Congress, spoke to the Gardena Women's Progressive club on Wednesday on the subject, "Women and Their Part in the War Defense." Dr. Russell was also the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the ladies of this club.

A large number of the young folks of Glendale will go into Los Angeles Saturday afternoon to attend the afternoon meeting at the tabernacle. Autos were provided for transportation of the party, which is limited to those from nine to sixteen years of age.

Miss Carol Whitaker and Miss Margaret Lang, of the class of '17, Glendale Union High School, who have entered the Nurses Training School at Pasadena, are spending the week-end in Glendale at the home of Mrs. G. A. Whitaker, 315 North Maryland street.

The Mothers club of the Acacia street school, Tropico, held their first meeting on Friday afternoon. The new president, Mrs. P. J. Priaulx, was in the chair and opened the meeting. Miss Fay Daniels gave a piano selection. The regular business meeting followed. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses of the afternoon and the members spent the afternoon in sewing.

EVERY ONE IS GOING

Preparations for the Eastern Star Red Cross card party to be given at Masonic Temple Thursday evening, September 27, are developing splendidly. The party is in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Warren Q. Roberts, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Miss Fredonia Borthick, Miss Mae Cornwell, Mrs. Laurence Ellis, Mrs. E. U. Emery and Mr. C. O. Pulliam, which means that the happiness of the guests will be planned for in every detail. Score cards are only 25 cents and there will be refreshments and the same good time that characterizes all of Glen Eyrie's social affairs. The proceeds of the party will be devoted to Red Cross work, which will make it popular. Many who do not play cards are planning to attend to participate in the good time and lend their aid to the cause.

WILL DISCUSS FOOD CONSERVATION

On Friday, Sept. 28, at 2 p. m., at the Broadway Department Store Auditorium there will be a mass meeting under the auspices of the Woman's Committee of the County Council of Defense.

The principal speaker will be Ralph P. Merritt, State Food Commissioner, representing Food Commissioner Hoover. Mr. Merritt has been in great demand and as he can give only one date in Southern California, outside districts are coming in to hear him on the above date.

Dr. E. C. Moore, the new president of the State Normal, who has recently returned from the East, where he has been closely in touch with the work in Washington, will also address the mass meeting.

Mrs. Frances Noel will also be one of the speakers, her subject being, "Women in Industry."

The mass meeting is called at 2 o'clock and is open to all.

HIS DECISION

"I have been in your train a long time now."

"I can't marry you," said the girl. "All right. Here's where I change cars, then."

"Mercy, John, the baby has eaten a lot of that dog biscuit!" "Never mind! It serves Towser right; I caught him eating the baby's food yesterday."—Boston Globe.

On Thursday evening after their son Owen C. Emery had reported for duty at San Fernando and expected to leave Friday morning, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery assembled at their home, 117 South Kenwood street, all the relatives and friends who had known Owen from his earliest infancy. The gathering was remarkable for its numbers. In countless homes no doubt the same scene was being enacted, but it seems scarcely possible, especially in the shifting, changing West, that so many whose associations have been so intimate could be assembled in any one town. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, Owen C., Waunita, Gilbert, Josephine and Olive Bell Emery, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Dean, Hugh and Albert Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ferguson and Esther Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Dr. Ralph W. Lusby, Miss Margaret Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston, Mrs. Hattie M. Johnston, James Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burket and Dana Burket, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Goss and Benjamin Harris. The evening was spent in recalling incidents familiar to all. Light refreshments were served.

Billy Sunday

said in a recent sermon:

"I said, 'Don't you think it possible that there is a hell?' He said, 'Yes, may be.' 'Well, just suppose there is a hell. It's good sense to get ready then even for the 'may be.' I don't look like a man that would die very quickly, do I? But I may die, and on that possibility I carry thousands and thousands of dollars of life insurance. I don't believe that any man does right to himself, his wife or his children, if he doesn't provide for them with life insurance, so when he is gone they will not be thrown on the charity of the world, and, next to my faith, if I should die to-night, that which would give me the most comfort would be the knowledge that I have, in a safe-deposit vault in Chicago, life insurance papers, paid up to date, that my wife could cash in and she and the babies could listen to the wolves howl for a good many years."

Splendid philosophy!
Don't you think so?

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA MEN MOVING TO CAMP LEWIS TO-DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, September 22.—San Francisco and northern California have a monopoly on movement of drafted men towards Camp Lewis to-day. More than 1000 men from San Francisco will entrain, with another large contingent from San Jose and smaller quotas from other northern California counties entrain to-day. The list of districts entraining to-day includes: the San Jose and San Francisco contingents, and men from Amador, Placer, Sierra, Nevada and Sacramento counties. To-morrow Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Contra Costa, Humboldt, Mendocino, Lake, Mariposa, Calaveras and Del Norte counties entrain.

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 22.—Fair swimmers from the San Francisco Bay region and some imported mermaids will compete to-morrow at Idora Park for the national plunge for distance championship.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 22.—Perfect birth registration has been attained under the new birth registration act in seven of the 31 cities with a population of over 5000, according to George D. Leslie, director of the bureau of vital statistics of the state board of health, who made the discovery in checking July reports. These roll of honor cities are: Bakersfield, Long Beach, Pasadena, Redlands, San Luis Obispo, Santa Ana and Santa Rosa. The July report for each city named was complete and did not include a single delayed certificate for a birth in an earlier month. Leslie expects this honor roll to increase, because some local registrars deferred until August the strict enforcement of the registration law which went into effect July 27.

SACRAMENTO, September 22.—In line with his drive against the high cost of living in state institutions, W. G. McMillin, state purchasing agent, is considering the advisability of having each institution make its own syrup. McMillin conceived the idea on the showing of the convicts of San Quentin prison who are manufacturing a fine grade of syrup at a cost of 50 cents per gallon. The state's contract price is 70 cents per gallon. McMillin has laid his plan before the state board of control.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., September 22.—"Hot dogs" will be a favorite dish in the state institutions for the nine months beginning October 1, judging from the schedule of supplies for the institutions just announced by W. G. McMillin, state purchasing agent. According to the schedule 112,650 pounds of these sauerkraut accessories are to be supplied for consumption in the various institutions during the nine months.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 21.—Supervisors from 15 counties will meet with the state highway commission on September 26 to determine the division of the $3,000,000 county road aid money to be used in the construction of eight roads in these counties. The eight roads are: An extension connecting the interior and coast main road through Trinity and Humboldt counties; an extension connecting the San Joaquin Valley trunk road between Merced and Madera with the coast main road at or near Gilroy, Santa Clara county, via Pacheco Pass; an extension of the Mariposa county state highway lateral to El Portal, Mariposa county, the gate way to Yosemite Valley; an extension of laterals between Visalia and Hanford via Coalinga to connect San Joaquin valley main road in Tulare county with the coast trunk road in Monterey county. An extension of the San Bernardino county state highway lateral to Barstow in San Bernardino county and an extension connecting Antelope Valley, Los Angeles county, with the city of Los Angeles and an extension of the San Bernardino county state highway lateral to the Arizona state line, near Yuma, via Brawley and El Centro in Imperial county. The counties to be represented at the meeting are: Trinity, Humboldt, Santa Clara, Merced, Madera, Mariposa, Monterey, Fresno, Kings, San Luis Obispo, Kern, San Bernardino, Riverside, Imperial and San Benito.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 21.—Cattle raising on the dairy farm of the Napa state hospital is a profitable business, if the sale of two four-months-old heifers that were exhibited at the state fair is to be taken as an indication. These two calves, according to a report just made to the state board of control by Owen Duffy, manager of the farm, were sold for $700, or $350 each, to a young farmer from Chile. The young man, who has just completed a course in the Davis state farm school, picked out the calves from all the stock exhibited at the fair, to be taken back to his Chilean farm.

NO "INFERNAL MACHINE"

The Chamber of Commerce secretary must have been some startled. This is his story:

"I was across Broadway in the Stoddard block, talking 'community concert' and arranging to have 'The Soldier's Farewell' sung by 'Coffee King Booth,' who has high-toned before the throne of England, as well as before the Throne of Grace in stately cathedrals.

"Returning, I noticed 'Vulcan Grose' gazing over towards '1010,'

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

No, George, the attendance at our church is not quite as large as that at the "Sunday Tabernacle." Had just twenty-nine more persons been present last Sunday we would have come near to straining the record. When the people sang "Brighten the Corner" and "Sweeter as the Years Go By" it had a sound just like the real thing.

Sunday evening more of these songs that grip the heart will be sung. If you have one of the tabernacle song books or one of the Brown and Curry song books bring it with you.

Although the pastor is attending many of the meetings of the Sunday campaign, he is finding time to give his people some most inspiring and able sermons. A lot of his people say Dr. Willisford never preached better. Get a friend and come over

America! America!
O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country

And mercy more than life;
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success by nobleness,

Undimmed by human tears!

THINNEST SOAP BUBBLES

They Almost Give Us a Sight of the Invisible Molecules.

What is a soap bubble? Nothing but a film of water molecules held together by the cohesive power of soap in solution. A soap bubble's size and strength depend upon the right composition of the mixture that furnishes its material. The colors in a soap bubble are due to what is known in physics as the interference of light, and depend upon the varying thickness of the film of water.

It is a singular fact that the last color to appear on a soap bubble just before it breaks is a gray tint. The thickness of the film when this tint appears upon it is less than the one hundred and fifty-six-thousandth of an inch.

Were a soap bubble to be magnified to the size of the earth and the molecules magnified in proportion, then the whole structure would be as coarse-grained as a globe of small lead shot touching one another at their surfaces.

In the blowing of a soap bubble there is presented the spectacle of the stretching of a liquid to the extreme limit of its capacity. In this way we come nearer to a sight of the invisible molecules of matter than could be got in any other way, no matter how elaborate the experiment.—Exchange.

SWIMMING AS AN EXERCISE

There is no exercise like swimming. The breast stroke builds arm and shoulder breast muscles. The forward thrust and backward sweep are guaranteed to develop those back muscles which cure the scholar's stoop. The scissors kick of the side stroke will do more for the legs than all the gymnasium tricks yet invented. The arduous labor of the trudgeon and the crawl compels deep breathing. And when one's wind, grown short in office or chair or over workbench, is spent you turn upon your back and rock, as in a cradle, looking at the sky.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

COLLECTING ANTIQUES.

The little town was highly excited over the announced engagement of the 19-year-old widow to Mr. Hoary. "Why, Daisy," her best friend said to the young widow, "you're not going to tie yourself to that old man? Why, he's three times your age! What are you doing it for?" "Oh, I can't resist having him!" said the young widow. "He does harmonize so beautifully with my antique furniture!" — Pearson's Weekly.

BOILED FROSTING FOR WHITE CAKE.

Melt one cup and a half of sugar in half a cup of boiling water; wash down the inside of the saucepan to remove grains of sugar, cover and let boil rapidly three minutes; remove the cover and let boil to 238 degrees F. Pour in a fine stream on the whites of two eggs beaten very light, beating constantly meanwhile. Flavor when cold with half a teaspoonful of vanilla.

Little Robert, says an exchange, rushed into the kitchen one day and asked his mother what kind of pie she was making. "Lemon meringue pie," she answered.

The little fellow disappeared, but presently returned. "Mother," he said, "what did you say is the pie's middle name?"

DARK OUTLOOK

"Don't you think the Russian women are brave who have formed themselves into a regiment, and will have the same discipline and fight the same as the men?"

"Maybe so, but all that training and military knowledge are going to tell in Russian homes when the war is over."

ETHYL ALCOHOL FROM WOOD.

There is no reason for discriminating against ethyl alcohol made from wood in favor of that from grain or molasses, according to the government chemists of the Forest products laboratory at Madison, Wis. The amount of impurities in commercial ethyl alcohol, they say, is very small, and the impurities are probably less objectionable when wood is used as a base than when grain or molasses is used.

The prejudice against the use for some purposes of ethyl alcohol made from wood is probably accounted for, the experts say, by a confusion with methyl or "wood" alcohol, which is poisonous. Both products are derived from wood, but are radically different. The ethyl, or grain alcohol, is made by reducing the wood to sawdust, treating the sawdust with an acid to produce chemical sugars and converting the fermentable sugars into alcohol by fermentation, as in the case of grain or molasses. Wood alcohol, however, is obtained by condensing certain gases which are liberated when the wood is heated in air-tight retorts, so that it decomposes without burning.

Ethyl alcohol has, it is stated, been commercially manufactured from wood for several years in this country. It is suitable for any use to which ethyl alcohol from any other base is put. Improvements on the processes which have been developed at the forest products laboratory have made it possible to decrease the former cost of production.

A LESSON IN THRIFT

In "The Family's Money" in the American Magazine a father asks his son why he does not increase his income every year in the following manner: "Suppose you save $250 a year, or about $5 a week. You could do that and not suffer. Invest that money in a sound 6 per cent. security. During the second year it will earn for you $15, giving you an increase of $1.25 a month. Add your interest gain to the principal, and at the end of the second year you will have $515 working for you.

"At the close of the fourth year you will have a capital invested of $1,092, which during the fifth year will give you $65, or more than $5 a month. Of course each year is adding to your principal and your income. When the eighth year comes to an end you will possess capital of $2,470, which during the ninth year will earn $148, or more than $12 a month, and that is not an amount to laugh at.

"At the end of the twentieth year you have $9,180, which during the following year will earn $550, or more than $45 a month. When that year closes you will possess capital of practically $10,000, which will give you an income increase of $600 per annum, or $50 a month.

A movement is on foot in Panama to use the higher mountains near the canal as a means of getting a change of climate quickly and cheaply for the benefit of canal employees, soldiers and others. The mountains around the head of Chagres River are 3000 feet above the sea level. A road built up to the summits would afford access to them in less than two hours from either terminal of the canal. A railway at a cost of several million dollars was built to reach Boquete, nearly 300 miles from Panama by sea, when a road to the Chagres highlands could have been built for half a million, not only giving access to those regions, but to rich agricultural lands. People living in the lowlands could spend the week-ends on those mountains. They could even leave Panama at the close of business, reach the mountains before dark and return in time for business next morning.—Argonaut.

"The Germans," said Admiral Cochprat of the French mission during his visit to New York, "the Germans don't know what humanity means. When they talk about being humane they remind me of little Marius. Marius was very proud of the new kittens, and went one day to get them to show to a visitor. As he returned through the hall the kittens made a frightful noise, and his mother called: 'Don't hurt the kittens, Marius!' 'No, mother, I won't,' said he. 'I'm carrying them very carefully by their stems.'"

One of the most interesting pens in the world recently came into the possession of Mr. Isaac B. Reed of New York. It is made from a carved box in which George Washington, as a young man, used to keep the lenses of his surveying instruments, and which was made of the wood of the lid of the captain's desk on the Mayflower. This pen has been used by both Lincoln and Grant.

THE NEW RUSSIA

Out of the chaos of ruin and slaughter,
The mystic, and handmaid of tyrants of yore,
Our Mother of Muscovy, Freedom's new daughter,
Has shaken her limbs and her bonds are no more!
Fled like old myths are oppression and prison,
Fallen the might of the brute and the spy;
Up from the mists we have struggled and risen,
And see with the wise and the free eye to eye.

Gone are the days of despair and repulses,
Banished forever our dark of eclipse;
The music of freedom throbs wild in our pulses,
The trumpets of triumph are set to our lips!

And woe if a despot presume yet from heaven
To claim his vain sceptre, or speak as from God;
The newly unfettered shall sentence him, riven
From baubles and pomp, to be purged by the rod!

Yea, we, the rude sons of regenerate Russia,
With dawn in our eyes and resolve on our brow,
On the gory apostate and scourge that is Prussia
Shall wreak the swift cleansing crusade of our vow!

And then, with the older free nations combining,
We'll pledge humankind to mad havoc's surcease:
O'erjoyed, with the prophets our new role divining,
To pluck from Night's bosom the fixed star of Peace.

The voice of free, jubilant Russia vibrate,
E'er hailing the god in him freer appearing,
Till spirit at last shall the flesh dominate!
—Herman Montagu Donner, in New York Times.

In the Woman's Home Companion C. H. Claudy describes the photographic trick of having one person appear twice in the same picture and tells the amateur photographer how to accomplish it.

"What you actually do is this: Cut from a piece of thick, stiff pasteboard a piece which will fit into the inside of the camera and be held in place by the folds of the bellows. It should be fitted in the fold of the bellows which will hold it about an inch or an inch and a half in front of the plate. Its width should be half the plate opening and a trifle more—say one-eighth of an inch.

"Make this piece of cardboard thoroughly black on both sides by dipping it in ink and letting it dry. See that the cardboard is well 'seated' in the bellows folds so that light does not leak past the joints.

"Pose your subject and proceed to focus so that the image appears on the right side of the ground glass in the camera (left side of the finished picture will be the result). The left side of the ground glass appears blank, because it is kept from exposure by the cardboard. Insert the plate holder, take a picture, put back the slide and remove the plate holder; on no account move the camera, however. Very gently slide the cardboard from the left side to the right and replace the ground glass. Pose the subject on the opposite side of the center this time. Then replace the plate holder, remove the slide and make a second exposure exactly the same length as the first."

PASSPORT TO THE NORTH POLE.

A passport to the north pole was issued some years ago by the governor of the province of Tobolsk, which stretches along the Russian shores of the Arctic ocean. The official was approached by two men who had been engaged to proceed to the north with an English expedition then fitting out. Their petition was for a passport to the pole itself, but the governor pointed out that the pole was as likely to be in their home province as in any other, that it was extremely unlikely they would reach it and that if they did there were no police there to examine their credentials. At last, however, to satisfy them he ordered the issue of a document allowing them to pass without let or hindrance to the north pole.

Most important finds have been made by the Pompeii excavations at the house of a rich person named Trebius Valens. On its long front, protected by a broad roof of tiles, is painted in red letters an extraordinary display of advertisements of all kinds. One announces that a gentleman and patron of Pompeii, Lucetius Satius, will give a feast in the amphitheatre, providing thirty pairs of gladiators, while his son will add ten more pairs. This seems to have been the usual number, as similar announcements have been found by other advertisers on other walls.

A curious jewel box made of fossil ivory by the natives of Siberia is on exhibition at the Museum of Natural History in New York. The sides and top are composed of flat pieces of ivory and are carefully fitted together, the corners being dovetailed. They have carved on them scenes of the northland, the front side representing a hunter returning from the chase riding a reindeer. The box is made from the tusks of mammoths that have been buried for ages beneath the ice in Siberia. Some of these tusks weigh from 200 to 300 pounds. Elephants' tusks furnished the ivory for the Jews. Solomon made his throne of it.
